

SAIL 2020

Aileen Zeigler

Aileen Zeigler is a Theatre Arts and Spanish teacher. She has taught in the south and the midwest to students of all ages. She has taught courses in Acting, Technical theatre, and production. Aileen trained as a stage manager and set designer at Denison University in Granville, OH. Aileen has directed over 30 productions with students including Catch Me if You Can, Gathering Grimm in a socially distant way via zoom, Radium Girls, Cinderella, Into the Woods and La Verdad Sospechosa.

She is an active leader in the International Thespian Society with whom she has provided workshops on audio creation lessons, musical theatre yoga, technical theatre and engineering collaboration, and model cornerstone assessments. Aileen has served as chapter leadership, as well as pilot programs with the national office and a local troupe director. Currently, Aileen can be found teaching in a virtual space through dramaversity.com

This program is made possible by a grant from the Alabama State Council on the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts