

Donna Pickens, M.F.A.

Donna Pickens is an artist and art educator, with more than 30 years of experience teaching art (kindergarten through adult classes) in a variety of public and private settings.

After living in Atlanta for 33 years, Donna moved to Montgomery, Alabama in 2004, working as Assistant Curator of Education at the Montgomery Museum of Fine Arts for the next 12 years. In her role at the Museum, she developed art programs, classes, and tours for children and adults, including the art curriculum and lessons for the annual fifth grade Montgomery public school tours and the arts integrated curriculum for the weekly Artist in Residence Program at the Wares Ferry Road Elementary School. She worked as the Special Projects Coordinator with the Alabama Arts Alliance until she retired last year.

As a professional artist, Donna created numerous large-scale public and private art commissions in Atlanta, and her work has been shown in local, regional, national, and international juried exhibitions.

Donna's professional training includes a B.A. from the University of Texas, an M.A. from Stanford University, and an M.F.A. from Georgia State University.

The Alabama Arts Alliance is a partnership program of the Alabama State Council on the Arts.

Programs and projects are funded in part by the Alabama State Council on the Arts; the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency; the Alabama State Department of Education; the Support the Arts License Tag Fund; foundation grants; individual donations; and memberships.
